
26 Thursday

Waited all day for the phone to ring.
Nothing — not even one SMS!!
Crap! Didn't you guys swear that we'd go through thick and thin together?
YA, RIGHT!

Evening

27 Friday

Can't stand this loneliness.
Feel it's killing me faster than the damn virus
To think I trusted you all to be here – FOR ME.
Isn't that what friends do for friends?
Guess I'm a TOTAL FOOL for believing that you guys would stand by me, no matter what.

Evening

28 Saturday

a.m. The phone rang. Once.
FREAKING WRONG NUMBER!!! p.m. I just can't believe how we used to call ourselves BLOOD BROTHERS.

29 Sunday

p.m.

The test of true friendship is a virus: HIV

Find out more about HIV and fight discrimination at "Open Your Heart", an audio-visual exhibition at Orchard Cineleisure Foyer, 28 - 30 March.
