HEALTHIER DINING INNOVATION (HDI) GUIDELINES

	Scheme Guidelines
Eligibility	The state of the s	utlets ¹ operating in the following types of F&B e Healthier Dining Innovation ("HDI") to develop mobile app)	or Beverage Partners) /or Beverage Partners)
	(NOTE: Service providers, such as not eligible for HDI.)	s culinary institutions and ingredient suppliers, are
Qualifying Areas	·	lication may be utilised by F&B Operators in the indicated in the relevant Application Form: -
Qualifying Ingredients/Products & Services	Qualifying ingredients/products and services under each Qualifying Area may include, but are not limited to, the following: -
a 50111605	Qualifying Area	Qualifying Ingredients/Products & Services
	Research & Development	 Special kitchen equipment for healthier cooking (e.g. pressure cooker, steamer) Raw materials costs Lab tests²
	Purchase of Healthier Ingredients	 HCS cooking oil and sauces Wholegrain rice, noodles, bread, flour etc. Functional ingredients (e.g. allulose, isomaltulose, dietary fibre)
	Culinary Training ³	 Qualified cooking classes Qualified cooking courses Qualified culinary schools
	Recipe Reformulation to Make	Dish reformulation (e.g. reduction of)
	Healthier Options	calories, make healthy food taste good)

¹ Digital ordering platforms (e.g. company website and/or phone app) may count as 1 outlet provided these platforms features and promotes healthier offerings tagged with Healthier Dining Programme (HDP) identifiers.

² Only for non-HDP partners. For HDP partners, complimentary nutritional analysis and lab tests are provided as part of programme.

³ Please refer to HDI webpage for list of approved cooking classes, cooking courses and culinary schools that meet HDP's nutrition guidelines.

	Drink reformulation (e.g. reduction of sugar, addition of calcium) Dessert reformulation (e.g. reduction of sugar, addition of dietary fibre)
	(NOTE: The list of qualifying ingredients/products and services are subject to changes at HPB's sole discretion. The Participants of HDI are encouraged to visit www.hpb.gov.sg/hdi frequently to check the updated list.)
Non-Qualifying Costs	 Production costs Products and/or services provided by the applicant's related companies Costs of normal kitchen equipment (e.g. pots, pans, utensils) Late charges Operational costs and overheads (e.g. electricity, rental, manpower) Above-the-line (ATL) costs (e.g. advertisements) Marketing and promotional materials (i.e. for within-store marketing materials, please refer to the Healthier Dining Grant)
Application Process	Any eligible F&B operators may apply for HDI by taking the following steps: -
	Step 1: Select ONE (1) Qualifying Area for capability building at a time in any application. Step 2: Source for the product/service and get a quotation from the vendor. For price reasonableness, please also provide a comparison with past purchase price or alternative quote from at least one (1) other supplier. Step 3: Fill up the HDI Application Form and submit the quotations to HPB Healthy Eating@hptb.gov.sg. (*Log on to www.hpb.gov.sg/hdi for the list of suggested product and service providers.)
Application Period	Applications for HDI can be made at any time during the subsistence of the Scheme, subject to HPB's unilateral discretion to vary, amend or stop the Scheme at any time. For the existing Participants, no new application will be entertained until its on-going
	HDI Project has been completed.
HDI Value	Each HDI is an amount up to S$5,000 that F&B operators my utilise in one of the four Qualifying Areas, as per the details submitted in the relevant Application Form. Each non-HDP F&B operator may be awarded up to one (1) HDI in each of the four (4) Qualifying Areas. Each HDP F&B operator may be awarded up to two (2) HDIs in each of the four (4) Qualifying Areas. Successful applicants will be awarded with one (1) HDI per application. Project fees which exceed the value of HDI shall be borne by the applicant. There will be no refund if the actual costs incurred are less than the value of HDI awarded. GST is not covered under the HDI.
HDI Validity Period	Each HDI has a validity period of twelve (12) months from the date of the Letter of Offer (the "HDI Validity Period"). Any and all claims under any HDI must be made during the Validity Period in order to qualify for reimbursement under HDI.

Extension of the HDI Validity Period	F&B operators with valid reasons may request for an extension of the HDI Validity Period by submitting a written request to HPB at https://hpb.gov.sg . at least one (1) month prior to the expiry of the HDI Validity Period. HPB may, at its sole discretion, approve one-time extension per HDI upon review of the request for an extension. Any decision made by HPB with regard to the extension of the HDI Validity Period shall be final.
Restrictions on HDI	The HDI cannot be utilised to reimburse any costs incurred in connection with any project that: • has commenced prior to the date of the Letter of Offer; • will receive other sources of government/non-government funding; or • will obtain any goods or services from the parent company, subsidiary or associate company of the Participant (if any).
Criteria for Reapplication	An applicant who has previously been awarded with any HDI for a project may apply for a new HDI only upon completion of that project.

Updated as of September 2018